The State of Arkansas vs Abdulhakim Mujahid
Muhammad
Case # CR 0009-2020

File: Motion to Challenge Detention
- Habeas Corpus -

This is a motion to challenge my detention and charges against me. The United States officially declared war on Islam Oct 7, 2001, against Islamic militant groups world-wide, which has been named the War on Terror or The Overseas Contingency Operation. The US government has a list of targeted Islamic groups, I will list them below as follows: Al Qaeda, Taliban, Caucasian militants, Al-Shabaab, Islamic Courts Union, Fatah-Al-Islam, Jundallah, Lashkar-Taiba, Jaish-e-Muhammad, Jamaah Islamiyya, Abu Sayyaf, Baath insurgents, Hamas, Hezbollan, and others. I have links to a least two of above mentioned groups. Even though I didn't get any paramilitary training, I have met, lived with, associated with, and discussed attacking military personnel with those groups. One more so than the other. Therefore I should be looked upon and tried as an enemy combatant rather than a common criminal. The operation in Little Rock should be looked upon as an Act of War rather than a capital murder. I know state prosecutors who are anxiously wanting to label me and the act that took place as a "normal driveby and a-drive by-stater" but the fact

Re: State vs. Abdulakhim Mujah Muhammad
CR 2009-2626

Dear Mr. Ferguson:

Enclosed are copies of a document received by this office on May 31, 2011, and an order entered by the Court. Since it is in the form of a pro se motion, the Court has considered it as such and entered an order in response. The originals of both will be filed with the Pulaski County Circuit Clerk's Office.

If I may be of any assistance to you, please contact me.

Sincerely,
