

Governor Mike Huckabee

Dear Friends:

In 2010 I endorsed a young, conservative newcomer for Congress in Tennessee's 3rd Congressional District - Chuck Fleischmann. Chuck won that election and has proven again and again that our support was well placed. As your Representative in Washington, Chuck has consistently voted for fiscal responsibility - limiting the size of the federal government, reducing our deficit, cutting taxes, reducing onerous federal regulations, and helping small businesses.

Chuck has remained true to his pledge to work to repeal Obamacare and has dedicated untold hours to help us get out from under this very bad law. Unlike others in his Republican conference, Chuck has stood firm on his convictions and has voted to repeal all or parts of Obamacare on each occasion as they have come to a vote on the House Floor.

Congressman Fleischmann has also remained true to our conservative values when faced with votes on other hugely important fiscal issues. He's not just paid lip service to these issues, he's taken action. In his first year in Congress Chuck voted to cut $1.6 trillion from the federal budget. In addition, Chuck voted to limit the powers of regulatory agencies, he voted in favor of free trade agreements, he voted to extend tax cuts for all Americans. Chuck has also voted to rein in the Environmental Protection Agency so they can't continue to run rampant and hurt small businesses.

When Huck PAC and I initially endorsed Chuck Fleischmann for Congress I said "Chuck is the type of strong conservative we need to represent us and stand for our principles in Washington." His actions and votes on important fiscal issues certainly prove that we were right in supporting him.

But that's not all. Chuck has also been an incredibly strong advocate on important social issues of the day. Since elected, he has voted to prohibit taxpayer funding of abortions, voted to amend Obamacare to prohibit abortion coverage, and voted in favor of prohibiting the use of federal funds for Planned Parenthood. Chuck also stands strong in support of the 2nd Amendment and all of his votes have reflected his support of this fundamental right. In fact, on every important social issue, Chuck has stood with us.

Chuck has worked for us and now we need to work for him. Will you join me and stand with Chuck now? Your help in these early days of his reelection campaign are crucial to his victory this November.

Chuck is counting on supporters from across the 3rd Congressional District to get behind his campaign financially and help him defend his conservative record. So I urge you to make an immediate donation of $10, $25, $50, $75 or $100 or more today. The Democrat leadership the liberal groups up in Washington don't like the tough stands he's taken and they are promising to attack him on his record. We need to make certain Chuck has the resources to fight back.

Let me be clear, I have no doubt we can count on Chuck to continue to fight for our conservative principles in Washington. I also know I can count on you to support Chuck Fleischmann for Congress in Tennessee's 3rd Congressional District. Our work to elect Republicans to the House, Senate and to retake the White House has a great chance of success with your continued hard work.

So please join me today and support Chuck Fleischmann's campaign with a donation of $10, $25, $50, $75 or $100 or more. Consider it a down payment on a principled, conservative future for our nation. Simply complete and return the enclosed reply device with your most generous contribution in the next 7 days.

Standing together.
