The Scripture of the Old and New Testament contain the wisdom we need to deal with the questions confronting us as a culture. These Scriptures are not handbooks that deal directly with each and every issue before us, but they do teach how to think God's thoughts after Him, and provide us with the moral guidelines need to confront the issue of our day. But to gain this wisdom requires us to search the Scriptures in humble dependence upon the Holy Spirit to acquire the ability to view our world and its challenges from the perspective of the One Who created us to care and take care of His creation, creatures, and those made in His image.
