NARRATIVE

Reporting Officer: 507 - KING, JOSH

On 06-27-2017 Myself and Deputy T.J. Bean were dispatched to a Domestic situation at 1687 S.R. 50 in Pelham. Upon arrival Deputy Bean saw a female from S.R. 50 bent down in the front yard. When we pulled in the drive way I noticed the female subject was urinating in view of the State Highway and public. When asked what she was doing she yelled "I'm peeing!". The female then pulled up her pants and underwear and walked to us and was very unsteady on her feet. There was a strong odor of alcohol on her person. The female was very loud and told us we better leave unless we had a warrant. I noticed all the windows had been busted out of a Jeep Wrangler sitting in front of the house. I asked the female what was going on and she advised "nothing and unless yall have a warrant leave" I advised the female we had been called to the residence on a reported domestic and would have to find out what was going on. The female became irate and refused to talk about the situation and said she was going to call her lawyer. The female took off at a jog for the front door of the residence. I told the female several times "ma'am stop we have to talk to you". The female refused to stop and I had to restrain her at the front steps. The female tried several times to pull away from me and was handcuffed by Deputy Bean. The female yelled over and over to the two children standing on the front steps "don't talk to them! don't tell them anything!". The female was placed in Deputy Bean's patrol car because she was being very loud and uncooperative. I then spoke with the children and they told me the female's name was Casey Anderson. The children told me that Mrs. Anderson and her husband, Tony Anderson, had been in a fight and he left in a Dodge truck spinning threw the yard. there was fresh spin marks in the front yard. Mrs. Anderson's mother was called by the children to come to the residence so the children wouldn't be left alone. Deputy Bean then called the complainant, Mr. Anderson, and he agreed to return to the residence. A short time later Mr. Anderson arrived and spoke with Myself and Deputy Bean. Mr. Anderson admitted to calling 911 and having a verbal altercation with Mrs. Anderson. Mr. Anderson had been drinking as well and was given SSFT's by deputy Bean. Mr. Anderson was not arrested because Deputy Bean did not feel he was intoxicated to the point to be charged with DUI. Mr. Anderson told us Mrs. Anderson busted the windows out of his Jeep after he left the residence. Mr. Anderson advised there was no physical contact between him or Mrs. Anderson. Mrs. Anderson was arrested and transported to the Grundy Co. Jail and booked on listed charges.

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT

Date: Wednesday, June 28, 2017

On the date and time above Myself and Sgt. Josh King was dispatched to a domestic situation where a male called had called and hung the phone up. Dispatch said that while the call was taken, in the back ground they could here a male asking the somebody if they would calm down. The male then hung up the phone but when dispatch tried to call it back no one would answer. The address where the call was made from was 1687 S.R. 50 so we responded to the address. While in the area trying to locate the address we saw some one from the highway in front of the house. When we pulled in the drive way and got out of our cars, I saw a unknown female situation down peeing when asked what she was doing she said (going pee). At that she got up pulled her shorts up and started telling us to get off her property if we did not have a warrant. Myself and Sgt. King tried several time in a nice manner to asked her what was going on, the female then started yelling she was going to call her lawyer and went towards the house. Do to officer safety Myself and Sgt. King gave several commands for her to stop which the female would not do. So Sgt. King grabbed her arm to keep her from going in the house and she started pulling away and resisting. At that time I placed her in handcuffs and set he on the bumper off a car. While sitting there she started yelling at her kids on the front porch telling them, to not say anything and to record us .To keep trouble down I sat her in the back seat of my vehicle. I advised her she was not under arrest at this time but was detained until we figured out what was going on. While Sgt. King was talking to the kids on the porch they said that the female ( Ms. Casey Anderson) and her husband (Mr. Tony Anderson) had been drinking and then started fighting then Mr. Tony Anderson left in his Dodge truck. We could see where there where fresh spin marks in the yard and we then noticed that the all the windows in a Jeep setting in the drive way had been busted out. So at that time myself and Sgt. King contacted Mr. Tony Anderson to and had him come back to the scene so we could find out what had happened. When Mr. Anderson arrived he told us that him and his wife had gotten into a verbal altercation and he left but the windows was not broken when he left Mr. Tony Anderson did admit to him and his wife both drinking. Being that we had saw Mr. Anderson drive up to the scene I gave him SFST's Which he preformed well on. At that time Sgt. King took Ms. Anderson in his car to the jail for booking.
