Zac is a friend that got out of jail in Calhoun Co last Wednesday. After being released, he has been high on meth since and terrorizing his family and friends that have tried to help him straighten up his life. I'm here because I want to seek a good behavior bond so that he will cease all contact with me as he has sent me between 300-400 text messages within a 24 hour period. I responded 5-6 times only to specifically ask for him to stop but he has not. He has also called me nearly 100 times daily since release. He has also post fake "screenshots" about me that he apparently created with an app to put on Facebook. Yesterday, the police were called to his mother's house because he was there without permission
